Cal and Nita Personal Resume

Pastors Cal and Nita Langford, dynamic Bible teachers are 1977 graduates of Rhema Bible Training Center, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma with a mandate from God to “Go and teach My people who they are in Christ Jesus,” a ministry that has spanned some 41 years. This mandate came about because of Pastor Cal’s revelation of 2 Corinthians 5:17.

After graduating from Bible School, they were led of the Spirit to move to Amarillo, TX where Pastor Cal became Associate Pastor of a local church there. While serving as associate pastor, God spoke to them to begin to travel in order that they might “learn the heartbeat of the church.”

After pioneering several churches in various parts of the country, they were led to come to New Bern, NC where they began Foundation Life Fellowship, which they have pastured for the last 31 years.

Pastor Nita, a mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, a truly dynamic Bible teacher, has been given a mandate from God to “go and teach the principles for having a successful marriage and family.”

She, like her husband, have ministered in various churches, conferences, women and men’s meetings, and Pastor Nita has ministered in several Women’s Aglow meetings.
